Subject: Consent form template UPDATED
Attachments: Revised costs to reference investigation item 10-31-2016.docx; UofCcfemplate Oct 2016.doc

Dear IRB Contacts,

Please note that the Office of Clinical Research (OCR) has revised template language for the “What are the Costs” section of the consent form for all Clinical Trials conducted here at the University of Chicago. The OCR will be reviewing for this new template language for all new IRB submissions submitted for the November 7, 2016 new protocol deadline and thereafter. The changes are noted in the attached Word document. Please be sure to forward this language to all currently active sponsors.

The IRB office has incorporated this new language into the current consent form template under the “What Are The Costs” section. The revised template version is dated October 2016 and is attached here. The revised template is also available on the IRB website at <http://bsdirb.bsd.uchicago.edu/formsguidelines/index.html#consent>

Please contact our office with any questions.

Thank you.
